Principal's Message . . .

Dear Lincoln Families,

Get ready for more spring snowflakes! I hope families can try to ignore the weather and come out to enjoy Legally Blonde, Jr. Tickets are available at the door and it is sure to be a great show!

Earlier this week, we hosted a parent orientation for our incoming Class of 2022. If you missed it, the slide show from the event is posted on our website.

Also, the PTO continues to seek volunteers for its many events and committees. Please consider being a parent volunteer if you can.

Enjoy the weekend,
Paul Suminski

Online Safety

The most important pieces of the online safety puzzle are the conversations you have with your child about how to make safe choices and why you value online safety as a family. Set family rules and check in with your kids regularly to make sure the expectations are reinforced. Common Sense Media also offers up some excellent articles on ways to use parental controls to make the internet a little bit safer:
