Good Luck to our Olympic Athletes!

Principal's Message . . .

Dear Lincoln Families,

On Sunday morning, Special Olympics will be held at Prospect High School! Lincoln has 6 athletes competing in track and field events! Students are encouraged to come and cheer on their classmates. Opening ceremonies start at 8 am. Events begin at 10 am.

Running the 50 meter dash and participating in the softball throw are Henry, Marco, Nikko, Fredy, Ivan, and Faith! Remember the Special Olympics motto: Let me win, but if I can not win, let me be brave in the attempt. Good luck to these Lincoln athletes and a big thank you to our marvelous Lincoln volunteers!

ASK THE OFFICE LADIES

Question: Does Lincoln assess end-of-year fines?

Answer: Yes. As we begin to close out this school year, staff will inspect student textbooks and chromebooks. As you know, students are expected to be responsible for the condition of their books during the school year. Textbooks are an expensive resource in the school, and they are reused until a new adoption occurs in the school district. If a textbook has been damaged beyond what is considered normal use, a fine may be assessed to your child. Fine sheets will be issued toward the end of the school year. Yearbooks will not be distributed to students until all textbook, LRC, locker damage fines, chrome book damage fines, and other fees are paid and any athletic uniforms are returned.
